Ed Wood EP

Today we proudly present our newest release, the 'Ed Wood' EP from Denis Karimani aka 'Remute'! This guy simply knows how to turn the knobs. He is best known for his awesome live performances all around the globe and various releases on labels such as 'Num', 'Lado', 'Einmaleins', 'Traum' and many more. If you have seen him live, you won't forget those nights. If you haven't, your missing out on something – if you get the chance to see him live, do not hesitate! This guy knows how to rock the crowd!

Denis grabbed this old audio treasure from dat for us to remix. It took over 1 year to finally put it out because of various changes in the remixes, but now you can get this lovely EP in your favorite download stores! The original is a timeless track full of rhythm and melodic soundscapes, just like you know Mr. Remute – straight club tracks. The first remix by 0x7f turns the track around into a bitter sweet melancholic direction, filled with field recordings and endless reverbs. The second remix by Alexis Cabrera & Guti is a hot techno track and made for the dancefloor. It includes jazzy influences with funky piano sounds. Great stuff from our two guys out of the heart of Buenos Aires. The last remix by Krllox is very dark and hypnotic. Repetitive minimal techno with a deep sub line. Techno heads watch out!

Remute

Who is Denis 'Remute' Karimani? The Hamburg-city boy Denis Karimani, born in 1983, started making electronic music at the age of 13 years and got addicted to it without fail. After lonely and quiet years of experimenting and self-discovery he released his first 12" called 'Hypnoconsole' on Zombie Nation's label Dekathlon records and got remixed by Munich-techno-hero Richard Bartz. The first live gigs followed directly and led him into smoky rave-basements, uproarious clubs, sunny open-air, as well as shaky party-boats... Due to excessive and unrelenting music-making Denis released lots of 12"s and made several remixes in the following years. He released records on fine labels like Traum, Trapez, Mbf, Areal, Dial, Weave or Liebe*Detail and made remixes for artists like Dominik Eulberg, Move d or Station17. In 2006 he released his first, after his beloved pseudonym named, album 'Remute' on Ladomat. For future records he is also working with great new labels like Num, Smallville, Kompass, Curle or Einmaleins.
